WILSON FAILED IN JUSTICE TO CHINA

Harding Denounces Shantung Award—Replies To Roosevelt.

Marion, O., Sept. 21.—Developing his attack on the peace treaty from another quarter, Senator Harding charged in a front-porch speech today that President Wilson's peace commission at Versailles broke faith with China, "thru contract secretly made," when they consented to the award of Shantung province to Japan.

China, the Republican nominee, said put her interests in the hands of the Americans, but found that "instead of being awarded the freedom of her own people, under the gospel of self-determination for which America spoke, several millions of her people were delivered over to a rival nation with the consent and approval of those who spoke for America at Paris."

In his speech, delivered to a delegation representing the Loyal Order of the Golden Heart, the senator also assailed the league covenant and declared the United States never would enter an international concord at the expense of its own independence. He reiterated, however, that he stood for an association of nations based on "the applied conscience of nations rather than military force."

Replies to Roosevelt.
At another front-porch meeting earlier in the afternoon the candidate shared the limelight with Lillian Russell, the actress, who made a speech to several scores of Marion women telling them why their first votes should be cast for the Republican ticket. She said American women must not be deceived by the alluring qualities of the League of Nations but should vote against it if they wanted to protect their homes and their sons.

Tonight Senator Harding replied to the telegram of Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic nominee for Vice President, who wired saying he had been misquoted by the senator in regard to American participation in the affairs of Haiti. Senator Harding's telegram follows:

"Your telegram stating that I quoted in a speech on September 17, a statement which you had already publicly denied, is received. I am frank to say I had not seen and have not yet seen such denial, but I accept your statement in good faith and express regret that I should have quoted you. I am sincerely sorry for any implied misrepresentation of you or any other candidate, even tho the error was wholly unintentional."

"This does not in any way abate my opinion as to the policy of your administration in dealing with Haiti and San Domingo, but I do want to express regret for the quotation of a statement you disavow. Because I am devoted to truth and courtesy I am asking the news associations and newspaper correspondents to carry this telegram as conspicuously as they did the quotation."

Huge Majority Predicted.

At the front-porch meeting addressed by Lillian Russell, who now is Mrs. Alexander P. Moore, of Pittsburgh, Senator Harding made only a short talk introducing the speaker and praising her interest in politics. Mr. Moore was also present, and made a brief speech predicting that Pennsylvania would give Harding and Coolidge a majority of a million.

Drawing a parallel between fraternal organizations and international relationships, Senator Harding told the delegation from the Loyal Order of Golden Heart that no association, whether between individuals or nations, should require the surrender of basic principles and convictions.

"I recall many an obligation that I have come in contact with in secret orders," he said, "and there isn't one that ever asked a man to surrender any of his liberties, any of his freedom of thought, any of his freedom of religious belief. And, making the application of that point, I want to apply it to nations. Just now we are talking very much about associations of the nations of the world. We, of America, gave first the finest illustration that was ever recorded of fraternity of nations. Some twenty years ago there broke out in China

what was known as the Boxer rebellion. It became necessary to send a military expedition to the relief of beleaguered citizens of the various nations of the earth. The sum presumably necessary to pay the United States for the protection of its citizens later was assessed against China. But when we came to cast up the accounts in detail, we found that the government of China had paid $8,000,000 in money to the United States, more than was necessary to recompense us for our military endeavors. And the United States returned that money to China.

Denounces Shantung Award.
"That is why China plants its faith in the example, in the democracy, in the justice of the United States of America."

"An interesting aftermath resulted in the peace conference in Paris. China went into the war at our request. And when the war settlements came about, China sought to be represented at the peace conference, and they ought to have been represented. For some reason or other they were not. They said, 'We will trust the United States of America to represent us, with confidence in that great republic.' And yet, somehow, thru contract secretly made, China had no voice in the settlement and instead of being awarded the freedom of her own people, under the gospel of self-determination for which America spoke, several millions of her people were delivered over to a rival nation, with the consent and approval of those who spoke for America at Paris."

"But when that covenant came into the United States Senate I rejoice that there were Americans in the United States who said 'no,' and we did not approve of the Shantung award. And we kept the plight and faith in the lesson we taught China some twenty years ago."

BASE BALL SEASON CLOSED SATURDAY

The local ball team disbanded with the game played last Saturday, which was lost to the All-Stars by the score of 9 to 3. But for the many rank errors, the score would have been very close. Monroe and E. Brown formed the battery for the Stars while Bates and Rickard toiled for the home squad and in so far as pitching was concerned but little difference was apparent, but the Hartford boys couldn't or at least they didn't give their pitcher any sort of backing. The other gang outplayed them a block.

On Friday McHenry was here for a game and the score was 3 to 1 in favor of the Black Diamond Diggers. McClure and Thompson of Drakesboro, constituted the battery for McHenry while Owen of Livermore and Soder of Central City performed for Hartford. This was one of the hardest fought battles of the season and like the game of Saturday, went to the victors on errors.

Thursday the Habit pill drivers were here, but got off to a bad start and lost to the home boys by 7 to 3, in a rather loosely staged affair. Williams and Soder toiled for Hartford, while Haynes, R. Welsh and Coons worked for the boys from Habit.

BIRTHDAY DINNER.

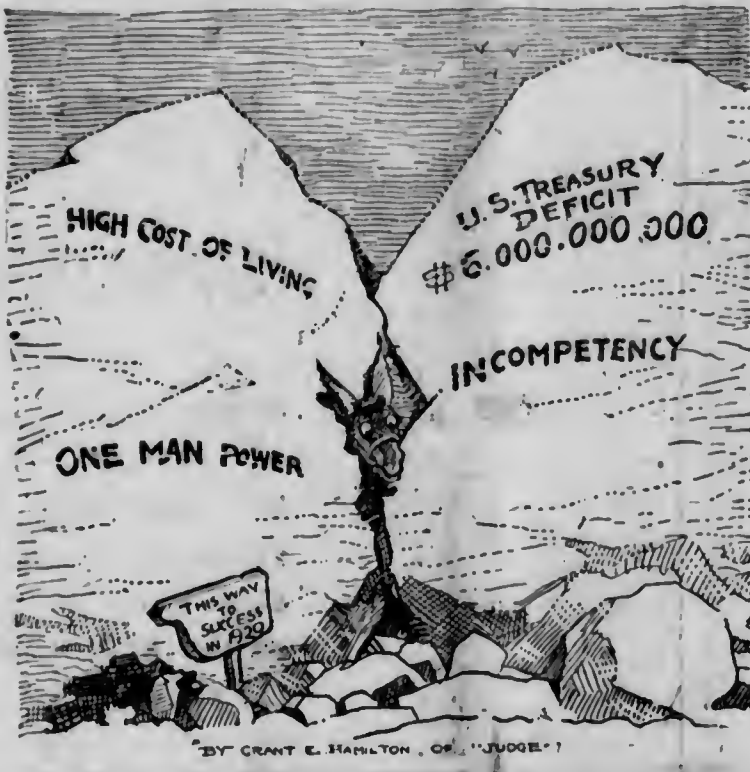

A surprise birthday dinner was given Mrs. Hannah Ward, at her home near Bada, Sept. 15th., in honor of her sixty-fifth birthday. Those present numbered about 35 and all came with well filled baskets. A bountiful dinner was spread and much enjoyed by all present.

The day was pleasantly spent and the assemblage dispersed wishing Mrs. Ward many happy returns of the day.

REPUBLICANS ADD TO CO. COMMITTEE

Members For New Precincts Chosen—Mrs. Kirk Heads Woman's Division.

The completion of the organization of the County Republican Committee took place here Monday, when seven members were added. This was made necessary by the creation of new precincts established by the County Court to accommodate the added vote, due to women being given the ballot.

Mrs. A. D. Kirk, of Hartford, was selected to head the Woman's Division, and is designated as County Chairman and will devote her efforts toward completing the organization of the women throughout the County. A number of women were also selected from various precincts, as members of the organization, and the list is to be completed at once, when active work looking to the polling of the full Republican vote is to be vigorously prosecuted. The party is to be congratulated on securing the services of Mrs. Kirk to head the women's organization, as she is enthusiastic, competent and a willing worker, planning to devote whatever of her time and talent that may be necessary in securing a thorough organization of the women of the County in interest of the G. O. P.

Mr. Claude Hudgins, of Hodgenville, representing State Headquarters, was here to meet with an advisory committee in organization details and offered many good suggestions which the Committee took advantage of.

The new members added to the County Executive Committee were as follows: East Hartford, W. P. Midkiff; Dundee, Dr. J. A. Duff; N. Rosine, L. L. Embury; N. Centertown, E. J. Carter; S. Rockport, Z. Harrell; Taylor Mines, Thomas Barrass; S. Fordsville, Walter Burden. Those who had previously been elected as Precinct Chairmen, or members of the Committee, automatically became chairmen of the precinct in which they may have been located by reason of changes made by the Court in establishing new precincts, whether they remained in the old precinct or were thrown in a new one.

DWELLING CAUGHT FIRE.

Last Friday, shortly before noon, the dwelling house of Judge John B. Wilson on Union Street became ignited and before the blaze could be extinguished by fire fighters answering the alarm, damage to the amount of near $100 was sustained. Sparks falling upon the roof from the kitchen flue is supposed to have caused the blaze.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE

To the taxpayers of North and South Rockport precincts, I or one of my deputies will be at Rockport Friday and Saturday, Sept. 24th and 25th for the purpose of assessing the taxpayers of said precincts. Please make your inventory and meet us promptly.

ROCKPORT TO GET LOADING STATION

Ky. Rock Asphalt Co. To Erect Big Station To Handle Their Product Over I. C.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 20. Engineers of the Kentucky Rock Asphalt Company, accompanied by Mr. John A. Logan, Brownsville, Ky., local attorney for the company arrived at this place this morning for the purpose of building a loading station here for the loading of their finished product into cars on the Illinois Central Railroad.

The company has been handicapped for some time by the car shortage, rendering them unable to move more than about half of their output. This station situated on the Illinois Central Railroad together with the same type of station which is located at Bowling Green, Ky., on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad will enable them to transport about as much again of their product.

The asphalt in its finished state will be brought from their crushers in Edmonson County by barges and moved from the barges by giant moving cranes into the cars.

CHINN—ROBINSON

Mr. W. M. Robinson and Miss Besie Mae Chinn, came to town Friday to attend the fair, and while here procured the necessary documents authorizing their action, went to the home of Rev. R. E. Fuqua and were joined in ties of wedlock, Rev. Fuqua performing the rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. C. C. Chinn, of Rockport, and the bridegroom is a son of W. B. Robinson, of Echols, both of whom are popular with their friends and acquaintances.

SOCIAL CLUB WITH MRS. JOHN TAYLOR

Mrs. John P. Taylor entertained the Ladies Social Club in a pleasant meeting at her home Wednesday afternoon. Progressive ruck was played and delicious refreshments served. Those present to enjoy the occasion besides club members, were: Mrs. Theo Hardy, of Vickshurg, Miss.; Mrs. T. R. Harnard, of Island; Misses Lucile Barrett, of Barrett's Ferry, Florence Logan and Zella Mae Nall, City.

THE FAIR.

The Ohio County Fair, under the management of Dr. L. B. Bean, was rather poorly attended the first two days, but a bumper crowd was on hands Saturday, larger perhaps, than for several years.

Quite a lot of stock and other exhibits were in competition for the many prizes offered and races of real merit, both harness and running races, were staged during the meeting.

LEAVE FOR SCHOOL.

Quite a number of young people left here early Monday morning for Lexington to enter and re-enter Kentucky State University as students for the year 1920-21. New Students from this place were: Miss Martha Pate, John Allen Wilson and Powell Tichenor. Those returning were: Byron Williams, Hinton Leach, Otis Howard, Oscar Bennett, Glenna Tinsley. Forest Bell, of Buford, also returned, as did James Coleman, of Wysox. Willie Maddox, of McHenry and Webber Clark, of Rockport, new students, likewise entered the University, going with the others. Gilmore Keown is to return next week.

There are a number of others throughout the County who returned as well as several new ones whose names we could not secure, and altogether Ohio County will have a large representation in K. S. U. during the year.

FIRE ALARM.

The residence of Joe Wilson caught fire Tuesday afternoon, about 3 o'clock. The fire originated on the roof, supposedly from bean hulls being burned in the kitchen range. Had it not been discovered in an early stage, in all probability the building would have been consumed as the roof of shingles was exceedingly dry, as it was but trifling damage was sustained. A large crowd was on the scene on short notice. Judge Slack recessed the Court when the alarm was turned in, which increased the army of volunteer fighters very materially.

SEPT. TERM CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION

The Ohio Circuit Court convened here Monday with Judge R. W. Slack on the bench. Cases have been set for trial up to and including next Tuesday.

The following jury cases have been disposed of, as well as a number of other actions heard by the Court: E. K. Taylor vs. Andrew Addington, verdict for the Defendant; Herbert Midkiff vs. Alva Carter, verdict for the Defendant; Virgil Craddock vs. Dr. P. T. Willis, verdict for Plaintiff in the sum of $14.00; Ada Belle Brooks vs. W. O. W. etc., on trial at press hour.

The following actions have been set forward to the 7th day of the term:

F. C. Bennett vs. Finis Wallace; Ira Hartley vs. Ky. Coke Co.; I. N. Lanham vs. L. & N. R. R. Co.; J. W. Smith vs. L. & N. R. R. Co.; I. N. Lanham vs. L. & N. R. R. Co.; Acme-Jones Co. vs. W. E. Ellis & Co.

For the 8th day of the term: L. R. Goodall vs. L. & N. R. R. Co.; Rough River Lumber Co. vs. L. & N. R. R. Co.; Ida H. Barnard Admrx. vs. Rockport Coal Co.; L. A. Adams vs. Rockport Coal Co.

Visiting attorneys here during the week were E. M. Woodward of Louisville, Ernest Rowe and Floyd Laswell, both of Owensboro.

SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Cutting and housing tobacco is the order of the day and the rust or wild fire, as some call it, is getting so bad that growers think best to cut it green rather than let the rust spoil it.

One day last week the Stork paid a visit to the homes of Mr. Elmer Dalton and Thomas Johnson, door-neighbors, and left at each place a bouncing baby boy. Mother and children doing fine, but as this is Mr. Johnson's first, his tobacco crop may suffer in consequence.

We were very glad to see I. D. Claire in print again last week with another string of beads, as he had been silent so long his friends were feeling anxious about him. Some thought that the Junk Dealer had kidnapped him and others that he had broken into another State Institution, but on inquiring at Eddyville and Frankfort, and not being able to locate him the next thing to do was to ask at Hopkinsville, Lexington and Lakeland, and I told them that it was a waste of time, as people who go to those institutions are people of bright minds originally, but suggested that they inquire at the feeble-minded Institute at Frankfort but before any results were secured, like Tumpy Loyd with his harp, he appeared with another string of beads and set all minds at ease.

PHILLIP P. CAMPBELL FIRES CAMPAIGN GUN

Kansan Makes Good G. O. P. Speech Here—Gets Good Hearing

Hon. Phillip P. Campbell, of Pittsburg, Kansas, member of Congress from the Third Kansas District, delivered a splendid speech at the Court House Monday, which marked the opening of the campaign in Ohio County. Judge R. W. Slack of Owensboro, who is here holding the September term of Circuit Court, introduced the speaker in a few, but well chosen words, and at the request of the County Chairman presided over the meeting.

Congressman Campbell held his audience, which was thoroughly representative of the whole County and comfortably filled the Court Hall, for an hour and three-quarters. There was a goodly sprinkling of Democrats present who were attentive listeners throughout the speech.

Mr. Campbell, for the most part, dwelt upon questions touching the late war and the League of Nations, indulging not in flowery flights of oratory but rather holding to a plain and forceful argument upon questions and matters in which the American men and women are most concerned. The speech was well received, good seed sown in fertile soil most certain to materially augment the harvest to be reaped on November 2nd, next. The speech was remarkably free from abuse, nothing was said that would wound the feelings of the opposition, on the other hand, comment has generally been flattering.

MOUNTAIN DEW ON THE CUMBERLAND

To my friends of Ohio County: I am located on the Glasgow Edmonson and Burksville pike and have been here three months, in charge of a convict crew, working on a State road. We have done some excellent work this summer.

This is the home of the moonshiner. I have explored some hard-looking country. If you know the trail and the password you can get mountain dew at eight dollars per gallon. Bootleggers got so numerous on the pike the other day I had to arrest one. I captured two fruit jars of the mountain dew.

Up here on the Cumberland river is where old maids are the fewest and plain girls are the most numerous and where fire arms makes widows by the hundred. Up here is where life-long Democrats curse Wilson and the League of Nations. They are for America and declare they will not vote for Cox.

Tell Fluke, W. S. D., and John H. T. to meet me on the banks of the Cumberland river about Nov. 10th, and we will kill the fatted calf and have a mint julep and rejoice in honor of the great Republican victory in Kentucky, which then will be a fact made known by the vote of the people.

Look at the roads for twenty miles around on a Sunday

THERE isn't any "country" any more. The automobile has brought the most remote settlement almost as close to the center of things as the next county was in the old days.

II

To hear some tire dealers talk you might think that nobody knew anything about tires except the fellow from Broadway.

That's not the basis we go on.

We give every man credit for knowing what he is spending his money on, whether he drives up here in his small car from ten miles out in the country or is passing through from the capital in his limousine.

III

That's one thing we like about U. S. Tires.

They make no distinction between the small car owner and the owner of the biggest car in the country.

It's all the same to them. So long as a man owns an automobile — large or small — he's entitled to the very best tire they can give him.

Quality has always been the outstanding feature of U. S. Tires. There's no limit on the U. S. guarantee. All U. S. Tires are guaranteed for the life of the tire.

IV

We have given a lot of thought to this tire proposition. There is some advantage in being the representatives of the oldest and largest rubber concern in the world.

Drop in the next time you're down this way and let us tell you some interesting facts about tires.

WOMEN BETTING MAD.

One of the newest fads which women in England have taken up is that of betting. Anything which offers an element of chance is seized upon to satiate their craving for excitement. Tennis, golf, engagements to marry, and even what word people will open conversation with are but a few of the ventures that attract them. The practice isn't confined to any one class but girls in the office, on the stage, married women and school girls indulge in it, laying wagers varying from a few pennies up.

KANSAS LILLO CHEAPER

The Kansas board of agriculture states that it cost less to harvest its bumper crop this year than it did the previous year, wages paid ranging from 60 to 70 cents an hour. Farmers generally had an abundant supply of labor.

Get Well! Your Blood and Nerves Need Iron

The most powerful and beneficial tonic in all medicine for the blood and nerves is iron. High medical authorities agree on this. But it is a mistake to take any ordinary form of iron and expect to get satisfactory results. Most of the common forms of iron are what is known in science as "inert" because when taken into the human system they exert no action whatever. Perhaps this is why you have been disappointed when you have taken certain pills or tablets or tonics said to contain iron.

The new way to restore iron to the blood—the surest and most dependable of all methods—is through the use of Acid Iron Mineral. This is a natural form of soluble iron, found in Nature itself, combined with other highly beneficial remedial agents. The story of the discovery of this new form of iron reads almost like a fairy tale and medical science has proved beyond question or doubt its remarkable blood-making powers.

Acid Iron Mineral may be procured in either liquid or the more convenient tablet form at any drug store. It contains no alcohol or injurious drugs and will not blacken the teeth. It has been especially noted that pale, puny children, weak, run-down persons and those enfeebled by age show improvement and exhibit increased strength almost immediately after starting treatment.

Low-Cost Mileage—in Goodyear Tires for Small Cars

There is no economy in buying so-called bargains in tires offered at sensationally cheap prices when a well-made tire delivers mileage at a considerably lower rate of cost.

Add the time and trouble occasioned by frequent replacements and it is fully apparent why tire users, seeking real mileage economy, are not attracted to very cheaply priced tires.

The popularity of Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch sizes, is based on the fact that they are built to deliver exceptional mileage at low cost and consistently do so.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Maxwell, Dort or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires—for true Goodyear mileage, value, economy.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30 x 3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available! $4.50

PARACHUTES 20,000 FEET.

A new world's record is claimed for Lieut. A. G. Hamilton, who recently dropped 20,900 feet by parachute from an airplane over Carlstrom aviation field, Fla. A second "chute" was used by Hamilton when within a few hundred feet from the ground, to check his rapid descent.

CHILDREN SOLD CHEAP.

The high cost of living is blamed for the fact that in the Little region a number of cases have come to light where mothers have sold their children for a few francs. Six such cases were discovered in one week. Or child two months old, it was learned, had been sold to a wealthy farmer for 10 francs. The practice is said to have been introduced by a colony from the French Alps where such traffic is no new thing.

"I'll give you five dollars a day spot cash," said the farmer to the tramp who had stopped to beg a meal, "If you'll help me dig potatoes. We'll begin right now," he pointed at the big field, "because I'm afraid the frost will get them."

"No," yawned the tramp, "You'd better dig 'em. You planted 'em, and you know just where they are."

SWIMS WITH HANDS AND FEET TIED

To show how the soldiers swam rivers in France Andrew C. Gault, of Salem, Ia., swam the Mississippi river with his hands and feet securely tied. First changing to the army uniform, which he wore for eight months in France Mr. Gault had his friends bind him tightly and cast him overboard. He literally kicked himself across the river, both feet moving together, of course, while he remained most of the time on his back. He declared that it was easy and that he could have swam back. Moving pictures were made of the achievement.

SUGAR IMPORTS INCREASED.

During the fiscal year 1920 the sugar imported into the United States totaled 7,600,000,000 pounds, while we exported 1,400,000,000 pounds. Our biggest customer was France, to whom we sent 700,000,000 pounds. Most of our imports were from Cuba, from which source we received nearly a billion pounds more than in 1919.

COVER SPARE TIRES

Sunlight and air are detrimental to rubber. Therefore, keep your spare tires covered. And park in the shade as much as possible. Statistics have shown that a tire good for 6,000 miles when new, will lose as much as 2,000 miles by being unprotected for a year, against the sunlight and air. It pays to get a tire cover.

Wine and women used to be blamed for the troubles of a lot of men, but it's prohibition and women that are making trouble for the candidates.—Chicinnatti Enquirer.

No American man or woman—those toilers of the city and the field, those mothers and fathers who are the heart's blood of this nation—wants a Wilson League of Nations which would tie this country helplessly to European politics, and bind it to fight for the interests of any and every country, whose interests are not ours. These Americans were willing to give up their hard-earned money for Liberty Bonds, for war savings stamps, for war taxes, willing to do without sugar and wheat and meat and light and coal, willing to give up their sons. Willing to do anything that America's honor might be preserved. But that patriotism embraces only their own country.

BAD TEETH AND INSANITY

As was announced a year or so ago, investigations at the New Jersey state hospital for the insane have convinced medical experts of the institution that diseased teeth and tonsils often harbor germs which may induce insanity. Working on this theory dentists and throat specialists are treating patients of the Missouri hospital for the insane at St. Joseph.

Several hundred patients have had their teeth and tonsils treated and gratifying results in the mental condition of a number of them has been noted.

THE "OLD RELIABLE" THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

White Haired Alabama Lady Says She Has Seen Medicines Come and Go But The "Old Reliable" Thedford's Black-Draught Came and Stayed.

Dutton, Ala.—In recommending Thedford's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors here, Mrs. T. F. Parks, a well-known Jackson County lady, said: "I am getting up in years; my head is pretty white. I have seen medicines and remedies come and go but the old reliable came and stayed. I am talking of Black-Draught, a liver medicine we have used for years—one that can be depended upon and one that will do the work."

"Black-Draught will relieve indigestion and constipation if taken right, and I know for I tried it. It is the best thing I have ever found for the full, uncomfortable feeling after meals. Sour stomach and sick headache can be relieved by taking Black-Draught. It aids digestion, also assists the liver in throwing off impurities. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, and do, to my friends and neighbors."

Thedford's Black-Draught is a standard household remedy with a record of over seventy years of successful use. Every one occasionally needs something to help cleanse the system of impurities. Try Black-Draught. Insist upon Thedford's, the genuine.

The announcement that $20 and $100 counterfeit bills are in circulation, from a personal standpoint, bothers us not a whit. But when they get to handling $1 counterfeit Williams we may then begin to take notice of the kind of script passed to us.

We are informed that in transcribing the boundary of the new Pond Run Voting precinct No. 37, that there was an error made in the first portion of the order giving the boundary, in the third and fourth lines. It should read: "thence a south course with said road" (dirt road instead of railroad). We followed copy and the error was not noticed until we had run that portion of the paper containing the notice.

In this issue we publish a list together with the boundary of the seven new precincts recently established by the County Court, and also changes in the boundaries of old precincts. Look the list over so that you may know where you are to vote in the future. It would be well for each voter to preserve that portion of the order affecting his individual precinct, and especially should the Election Officers preserve a copy and have it on hand on election date.

Even our neighbor, the Hartford
Herald, is afflicted with boodlitis.
It says "There is no reason why the good old county of Ohio should not make a splendid showing for Democracy in the coming election despite the boodle money the Republicans intend to scatter in our midst." Where did the Herald get its owl-like information about Republican boodlie?
That statement is about like Governor Cox's, the Herald is simply drawing upon its imagination and in advance undertakes to cast odium.
Where, again we ask, did you get your information, you speak as tho
you were advised, even beyond doubt.
Please Mr. Herald, when up this way kindly sneak into our private office and slip us the information. You don't expect to get any of it as a matter of course, and maybe if you will be so good as to put us wise it might in some mysterious way be a sort of solace to us you know.

Lord Mayor MacSwiney, of Cork, in Brixton prison, has been reported as slowly dying for the past two or three weeks from starvation, due not only to his voluntary but willful refusal to partake of food and nourishment.
We presume that the Lord Mayor has a perfect, personal right to take himself hence, by that method if he so desires, but in refusing to partake of the sustenance of life and thereby perish is nothing more or less than suicide, which will not do either himself or the cause for which he must think he is sacrificing, any good, as we see it. It has become rather common for prisoners to go on hunger strikes, and usually it only shows that the fasting prisoner is an ex-centric or is in violent and willful opposition to the rule of constituted authority above. We do not profess to be familiar with the various details of the whys and wherefores of Mac-Swiney's incarceration, but legalized authorities ought to be very slow in lifting prison bars for inmates simply because they will not eat. That is the method they have elected to follow in order to gain freedom and should they voluntarily and willfully take their own life in the attempt,

we utterly fail to see as to how blame may be attached to the officials of the Government.

In the face of all of Cox's wild-eyed talk about the Republican $15-000,000 campaign fund, Democrats everywhere are making the most frantic effort to raise a huge sum to be spent by their own party. But as a matter of course every cent they raise and spend will be used for the circulation of tracts angelic in nature only. The wicked Republicans will, according to their charges, use dirty dollars to debauch the electorate, while Democrats will use purified shekels for nothing but holy purposes. One big Democratic Daily has the headline "BOYS! GET THE MON-EY". Then asks that every reader of the paper give a dollar. It is reasonable to suppose that at least half of the people in the Nation read some Democratic paper, if they do, and give a dollar you have the tidy little sum of more than fifty millions for a Democratic campaign fund. Up in Aberdeen, South Dakota, they took $40.00 away from each of the dozen or so girls who worked for the Government in the internal revenue office, presumably under civil service regulations, at that place. So far we have not seen a single word of comment about the matter in any Democratic paper coming to this office, and we receive about a dozen. The truth about the whole business is, in our opinion, Cox and his managers have made these charges for the purpose of focusing attention in the opposite direction while the real thief, so to speak, is making a clean getaway in the other direction. With the scores and scores of thousands of office holders to draw from, to squeeze and wring dry, there is no
wry of telling about the immensity of the fund they will have at their command. You may count it as a certainty that for every dollar the Democrats have need, at least two will be in their chest for ready service, and if Republicans don't wish to wake up some of these mornings to find themselves poverty stricken in comparison with the Democrats they had better get busy in raising funds for the hundreds of things absolutely necessary to the proper and lawful conduct of a respectable campaign.
Don't let the charges of Cox and the others put you to sleep. Turn your attention up the other end of the road. The man you need to watch is making his escape while you vainly look for the fleeing culprit at the wrong end of the trail.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Reduction in Price of Ford Products

The war is over and war prices must go. Effective at once Ford Cars, Trucks and Tractors will be sold F. O. B. Detroit with the following prices:

Touring $440, Touring Starter $510, Runabout $395, Runabout Starter $465

Chassis $360, Coupe Starter and Demountable Rims $745, Sedan Starter and Demountable Rims $795, Truck Pneumatic Tires $545, Tractor $790.

The Ford Motor Co. makes this reduction in the face of the fact that they have on hand immediate orders for 146,065 cars and tractors. The company will suffer a tremendous loss while using up the material bought at high prices. They are willing to make the sacrifice in order to bring business back to a going condition as quickly as possible and maintain the momentum of the buying power of the country. Henry Ford says: "The war is over and it is time war prices were over." There is not sense or wisdom in trying to maintain an artificial standard of values. For the best interest of all it is time a real, practical effort was made to bring the business of the country and the life of the country down to regular pre-war standing. "We are at your command with regular Ford efficiency in service and eagerness to fill your orders."

to watch the antics of those two birds was equal to, if not greater than viewing a comedy picture show at the theater of Ed Barrass. They circled around each other some several times like two yearling roosters in springtime, finally they clashed, and for a spell I thought they were in mortal combat, but it developed that they were simply allowing their joy to ooze out in bearhugging embraces. I tell you when strong men like Bat and John do love each other as they evidently do, there's something to witness when they meet for the first time after long and weary months of separation.

Speaking of John Henry, I asked him to go out with us last Friday night, knowing that the old town was full of fair visitors, and other kinds too, and as a consequence spare straw hard to find. He said that he would be glad to get a sleeping place with us but would not come out till a bit late. So we fixed his bunk and told him how to get in. We did not hear him come in, (but we are not telling that on him) neither did we hear him leave, but the bed showed every sign of having been occupied, for a short time at least. When we came down town the next A. M., Thomas said he left his watch on the fireboard and apparently was in very great distress, fearing that he might lose it, he said he had been carrying it for several years and for sentimental reasons would not part with it for 10 per cent more than he paid for it.

We told him to ease his mind about the watch, that we would look it up for him and bring it down at noon.
We did so and don't you know that it was an old type of Ingersoll, a dollar watch, but John claimed that it was a special, for which he paid Tappan $1.35 in 1917. It was evidently prior to that date as two holes had worn through the back of the case.
We expected a small reward from Thomas, but he didn't so much as thank us for our honesty. We will not watch the next watch he carelessly leaves on our mantelpiece.

Fordson

TRADE MARK

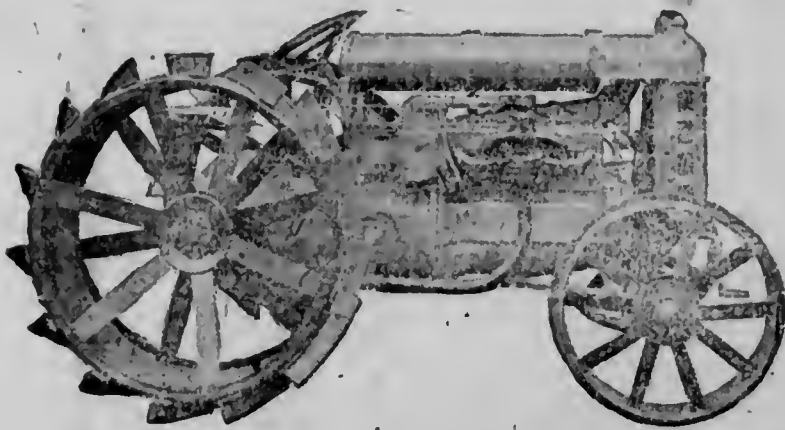

FARM TRACTOR

The Fordson cuts the cost of preparing land almost to half of what it cost with horses. But even more important is the fact that the Fordson saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time. And time saved—getting fields in shape to plant in the proper season; getting things done when they should be done—means money to the farmer. Besides it helps greatly in solving the labor problem.

As ever, the machine way is proving more efficient, faster, easier than the old hand way. In the factory the machine increases production, saves labor—produces more at less cost. And that is what the Fordson does on the farm. The Fordson way is the machine way of farming. Besides it helps the labor problem.

The Fordson's first cost is low; and the after or operating cost is low. It is a compact, easily handled tractor, backed by the greatest tractor service organization in the world.

We are Fordson dealers. Not only do we sell Fordson tractors, but we carry a stock of Fordson parts and employ Fordson mechanics to help the farmers get the best results from the Fordson. Let us demonstrate the Fordson on your own farm.

FARM DEPARTMENT.

Farm Women Go 75 Miles To Learn Cheese Making.

Last spring two women living in South Ferry, Idaho, heard of a cheese demonstration to be given by a dairy specialist connected with the State agricultural college in a town 75 miles away. They made the trip—a two-day one—by stage to the meeting and learned the ins and outs of cheese making. Then they returned to South Ferry and taught the women in their neighborhood what they had learned regarding cheese making. A survey made this summer—three months after the demonstration—showed that 1,600 pounds of cheese had been made in that country under the tutelage of the two women.

In Niobrara County, Wyo., the Farm Bureau members are standardizing their butter and selling it in special cartons labeled "Niobrara County Farm Bureau Butter." They are hoping to do the same with cheese. One woman in Niobrara County paid all the expenses of her household last year by making and selling cheese. She did the same this year and in addition is buying all the gasoline for the tractor.

In 1920 394,718 pounds of different kinds of cheese were made in farm homes in the North and West as a result of the efforts of the home demonstration agents.

Experiments must be carried out upon an experiment station farm to find how the average farmer can make or save money, but in spite of these high overhead expenses the Arkansas State College farm sold produce worth $15,000 last year. The department of horticulture representative received $1,250 for the crop of yellow transparent apples, the animal husbandry branch sold 22 pigs for $538.20, and the potato crop brought $1,250.80. Other products raised on the farm receipts to the total given above.

The idea of profit is not uppermost in agricultural experiment work, but these sales figures show that scientific, well-planned farm management can overcome the handicap imposed by unusual expense.

Broodiness in Hens Often Causes Reduced Egg Yield.

Broodiness in hens is a frequent cause of reduced egg yields. The sooner that a broody hen can be "broken up" the sooner she will resume laying, say poultry specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Among the many devices used, one which is both effective and humane is this: Confine the hen in a small coop having a slat bottom and raised off the ground. Give her an abundance of water to drink, and she may be fed or not, as desired. Some poultrymen prefer to fast broody hens, but whether she is fed or not appears to make little difference in the duration of broodiness. From three to six days' confinement in the ventilated, slatbottom coop will "break up" most hens, though some require 10 to 12 days.

Corn Most Valuable of all Silage Crops.

Almost any green crop can be made into silage successfully. Much care, however, must be taken to expel the air from such hollow-stemmed plants as the small cereal grains by cutting fine and packing firmly. Other crops, of which legumes are examples, are deficient in the fermentable constituents needed for palatable silage. On the other hand, a few crops, such as the saccharine sorghums, have so much sugar that unless cut at a more mature stage they have a tendency to produce sour silage.

In most parts of the United States more food material can be obtained from an acre of corn as silage than from an acre of any other crop that can be grown. Corn is more easily harvested and put into the silo than crops like rye, clover, cowpeas, or alfalfa, and when cut for silage the maximum quantity of nutrients is preserved. Experiments have shown that corn, when silaged, lost 15.6 per cent of the dry matter, against 23.8 per cent when cut for fodder and cured in the field. Moreover, there is less waste in feeding silage than in feeding fodder, since good silage properly fed is all consumed. When corn is cut for silage the land is cleared and left for another crop sooner than when the corn is shocked or is hauled from the standing stalk. Corn can be put into the silo at a cost not above that of shocking, husking, grinding, and shredding.

Best Kind Of Kitchen Table Is One Easily Kept Clean.

The worktable should be plain, substantial and of such material that it is easy to clean and keep in good condition. Most kitchen tables have a shallow drawer for small utensils, while others have drawers, drawboards, and bins for storing supplies.

They are known as pastry tables. Where storage space is limited, the bins will be found particularly useful.

Unfinished wooden tables require much scrubbing and under constant use become stained and unsightly. Varnishing, or painting and enameling, the lower parts, and covering the top with a nonabsorbent, easily cleaned material saves much labor in the end. Sheet zinc is often used on table tops. It should be brought well over the edges and fitted and tacked carefully so that no water can get underneath and so that no sharp edges are exposed. Zinc has the advantage of being proof against hot utensils, but it is affected by both acids and alkalies and is therefore rather hard to keep in condition. It is not a suitable material to come in contact with many foods, household specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture say. Oil cloth is also widely used for covering tables, but linoleum, although more expensive, is far more durable, especially when fastened to the table with waterproof cement.

Procelain and glass table tops are very attractive and easy to clean, but are relatively expensive and must be used carefully. Sparate enameled-ware tops in various alizes to fit over wooden tables are on the market. They are very convenient and not expensive. Marble-topped tables have long been considered especially good for pastry making, but are now almost prohibitive in price, and a polished marble slab laid on an ordinary table answers the purpose fully as well.

The more properly and regularly all refuse of the household is harmlessly disposed of the better for the healthfulness and comfort of the home.

How Dayton Egg Circle Marketed Its Product.

In Liberty County, Tex., the county agent found the farmers' wives having very great difficulty in the marketing of eggs, especially in the summer, and decided that conditions offered an excellent opportunity to introduce improved methods. The price was exceedingly low. Accordingly he encouraged a group of farm women to organize the Dayton Egg Circle, with a secretary-treasurer, who was also the business manager.

They adopted a standard trademark. Each egg was stamped with the number of the member as well as the trademark and arrangements were provided on each farm for producing infertile eggs. Each member agreed to gather the eggs twice daily and follow instructions regarding the care and marketing of them. The association had 12 members to begin with and they had difficulty in getting two cases of eggs a week.

From July 15, 1915, to the same date in 1916, the total shipments were 9,870 dozen, bringing in $2,185, which was distributed among the members. From June, 1917, to June, 1918, they shipped 13,830 dozen. At that time they had 28 members. From June, 1918, to June, 1919, they shipped 29,377 dozen, bringing in $8,975.91. Since the first demonstration the county agent and specialists have not found it necessary to devote any particular amount of time to assisting this organization. It is an excellent example of a good marketing demonstration.

Selling Pigs and Buying Pork No Profit for Farmer.

There is a profit in selling pigs and buying pork—but not for the farmer who follows this practice. The farmer's most profitable course is to kill, cure and can enough pork for his own use and sell any additional amounts which he can produce and for which there is a demand. The practice of home curing pork has suffered through neglect, but it is now being revived, according to the Bureau of Animal Industry and the States Relations Service. These two bureaus of the United States Department of Agriculture are co-operating to encourage the general adoption of this wholesome usage among farmers. Home-cured pork, scrapple, pork pudding, sausage, canned pork, headcheese, and lard are among the foods which the farmer should get from his own cellar shelves and not from the city market.

The keeping of a reasonable number of sheep on the average farm does not necessitate the keeping of fewer dairy cows or other grazing stock. This fact was determined by the United States Department of Agriculture in its recent investigation of sheep-raising possibilities in New England. It was found that farms where sheep are kept successfully have practically the same number and kinds of other live stock as other farms of like acre where no sheep are kept, and that the acreage in crops on the two classes of farms is substantially the same. The inference is that the farmer who keeps no sheep is simply throwing away enough pastureage that cows and other live stock do not utilize to net him a profit.

ENGLISH USE HOLLOW BRICK.

Hollow brick made of cement and sand by simple hand machinery have lately been introduced in England. They are made hollow to provide air spaces in the walls and to reduce cost and labor. The ends are shaped so as to make close around joints. The new brick are about five times as large as ordinary brick and as they are relatively light in weight walls are easily and rapidly laid with them. In laying the ends and bottoms of the brick are simply dipped in a thin mortar of lime and cement; applying mortar with a trowel in the usual manner would result in stopping up the air spaces.

BIRTHPLACE OF PAUL BESEIGED BY TURKS

Constantinople, Sept. 9.—Tarsus, the birthplace of St. Paul, which is located about twenty miles south of Adna, is being besieged by the Turks and the French garrison and the 25,000 inhabitants of the place are short of food, according to a letter received here from Professor Paul Nilson, who is in charge of St. Paul's Institute there.

The Turks are fighting from the fig and orange groves on the plain surrounding the city, relying on their rifle fire to hold the French garrison within the walls. The French are making every effort to save the pretty, clean, white walled town, and airplanes drop letters in the streets, but are unable to land because there is no room for a landing place in the city.

THE GREAT COST OF AUTOS

Careful estimates reveal the fact that the public is spending over $6,000,000 a year, or $250 per family, for operating and riding in automobiles. $7 per cent of which are passenger cars. With the road-building and maintenance cost added to the above, automobilism will likely foot up as great a sum total to the American public as the operation of the railroads.

PANAMA CANAL IS PAYING EXPENSES

In August all records for traffic on the Panama were broken, when a total of 300 ships passed thru and the tolls totaled $936,000, an average of over $3000 each. During the last three years an average of about 2000 ships a year have used the canal, and the number is steadily increasing. All ships, American as well as foreign, have to pay tolls.

The Panama canal was not constructed as a money-making venture. The primary object was to give a short passage between the Atlantic and Pacific and get rid of the long and dangerous route "around the Horn." Uncle Sam's purpose also was to increase the effectiveness of his navy by providing a short cut between the two oceans on which his domain fronts.

But it would be a satisfaction of course if the canal could also be made to pay for itself. It cost the people of the United States about $400,000,000 and the interest on this would be, say, $20,000,000 a year. In the past fiscal year the canal had a total income of about $8,000,000 and this left a surplus above operating expenses of about $2,000,000.

This is the first time the ditch has shown a surplus. The newspapers publishing articles declaring that the Panama canal is now on a paying basis etc. As a matter of fact, it is not on a paying basis, for there is the interest on the investment that has to be considered.

It is quite customary for enthusiasts on government ownership to ignore altogether the invested capital. If the income runs above expenses they figure that a "profit" is made; they forget that the people had to put up the money originally to pay for the canal and that this amount represents part of the national debt, on which interest is paid. Congress has to vote the interest is paid. Congress has to vote the interest each year and also vote enough money to pay the deficit, if there is one.

The last year was the only one when the Panama canal did not show a deficit, since it was opened for traffic in 1914. The total deficit so far is about $4,000,000. At the present rate this will be wiped out in another year or two. Traffic will have to be multiplied about four or five times before the investment can be said to be paying on a strictly business basis. But it has paid from the start as an improvement which links up the different parts of the

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY IN MICHIGAN

HAKEITE PROPELLER STRONG

In attempting to land at an aviation field near Washington a short time ago an airplane equipped with a Hakeite propeller made of hakeite—a material somewhat similar to celluloid but almost indestructible—nosed over. The propeller churned around several times in the mud and at length righted the machine. Everyone expected to find it broken or at least rendered unfit for further service as such a strain would have broken a wooden propeller into splinters. The hakeite, however, was not injured at all.

Swellings of the flesh caused by inflammation, cold, fractures of the bone, toothache, neuralgia or rheumatism can be relieved by applying Hallard's Snow Liniment. Sold by Ohio County Drug Co.

TO KEEP TOOLS RUST-FREE

Most lubricating oils contain some acid and therefore cannot be safely used to prevent steel tools from rusting. A coating of ordinary vaseline, however, is excellent. Another good treatment is to rub the tools with a solution of white wax in benzine. The benzine should be heated on an electric stove or by immersing the vessel containing it in hot water—it is extremely dangerous to bring it near a fire. Use half as much by weight of wax as benzine. Apply the solution with a brush.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Sold by Druggists, etc. Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

QUICK OCEAN TRIP

The Aquitania of the Cunard line recently made the trip from New York to Cherbourg, France, in five days, 17½ hours. This is next to the best record between these two countries—five days and 16 hours—which was made in 1900 by the German steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse.

Just What She Needed.

"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets some time ago and they proved to be just what I needed," writes Mrs. Volta Bankson, Chillicothe, Mo. "They not only relieved me of indigestion but toned up my liver and rid me of backache and dizziness that I had been subject to for some time. They did me a world of good and I will always speak a good word for them."

WEEDS IN ORCHARDS.

Some horticultural experts are advocating the growing of weeds in orchards, arguing that satisfactory "cover crops" may thus be obtained without effort since weeds grow spontaneously under conditions which cultivated plants could not survive. Weeds, they say, return to the soil the humus essential to the growth and fruitfulness of the trees without robbing them of moisture or other elements that can ill be spared.

NEWPORT WOMAN SAYS IT'S GRAND

Before Taking Tanlac She Had To Spend Half Her Time In Bed—Gains 22 Pounds.

"Although it has been four years now since Tanlac restored my health I am still feeling fine," said Mrs. Jennie Williams, 141 Fourteenth and Central Aves., Newport, Ky., recently.

"Yes, sir, it not only restored my lost health, but I gained twelve pounds by taking it," said Mrs. Williams. "I had been suffering from stomach trouble for at least four years before I began taking Tanlac. My appetite was very poor and I got to where I suffered so much after meals I just dreaded to eat and often went as much as two or three days without eating a thing. I would float up badly with gas that pressed against my heart until it palpitated dreadfully and I could hardly get my breath. Then, too, my food felt heavy and caused intense pains in the pit of my stomach. At last, I was put on a milk diet, but in spite of this and the fact that I tried all kinds of treatments and medicines, I continued to grow worse. My nerves were so badly upset I could never get a good night's sleep and always felt tired and worn out in the morning. I also lost considerable weight, finally getting so weak I could not do my housework, spending about half of my time in bed."

"By the time I had taken half a bottle of Tanlac I noticed I was getting better and by the time I had finished my fourth bottle I was feeling as good as I ever did in my life. I have a splendid appetite, can eat just anything I want and everything agrees with me perfectly. My nerves are in such fine shape I can sleep like a child all night long. In fact, I just feel like a new woman, and can do my housework with as much ease as ever. From that day to this I have never had the slightest touch of my old troubles and have enjoyed the best of health. At the time I began taking Tanlac my sister and cousin also started on it, and it did them a world of good."

Tanlac is sold in Hartford by Dr. L. B. Bean, in Horse Branch by Olton Drug Co., in Rockport by James Brownlag, in Cromwell by Wallace & Porter, in Beaver Dam by R. T. Taylor, Jr., and in McHenry, by S. J. Tichenor.—Advertisement.

MAIS AGAIN SIGNALING?

According to Camille Flammarion, the French astronomer, Mars is still attempting to signal the earth by means of telephotography. For the third time since 1879 a white spot has appeared on the Martian equatorial plateau. This, according to Flammarion, cannot be accounted for except as a systematic effort at communication, as it is a summer time in that hemisphere and no snow could possibly be visible.

OBEYING THE LAW.

When Roosevelt was president and he was arrested for auto speeding, the Pathfinder declared in the most emphatic terms that he was setting a bad example, in refusing to pay the respect for the law which ordinary people are required to show. When Taft was president and he pardoned Morse, the hanker, who had misappropriated other people's money, we condemned him in our strongest language. And now when Gov. Cox is stopped by the guardians of the peace because his auto is speeding, and then evades the consequences and claims an immunity which the ordinary citizen does not enjoy, we say again that he is doing wrong. Not only is he setting an example of lawlessness and defiance of public authority but we believe he is practicing poor politics as well. The people generally are so familiar with the dangerous practice of auto speeding that they are touchy on the subject and it is tactless, to say the least, for any official, and especially any candidate for office, to brave public opinion in such a matter. It may be that the Republicans set a "trap" for Gov. Cox and that he knew about it in advance, as reported, but, even so, it would have been more politic for him to have conducted himself in such a way that his course was not open to criticism. The statement of Gov. Cox's manager, that they could not have been exceeding the speed limit because they "averaged only 23 miles an hour" on the trip is in itself an effort to common intelligence. Every person of ordinary sense knows that an auto may run at an average speed of only 23 miles on a trip and still run at excessive speeds for part of the way; the "average" has nothing to do with the speed at any particular point. Presumably Senator Harding sometimes exceeds the speed limit; everyone who ever rides in an auto does this. If he should be halted for speeding and then refused to obey the officers of the law, we should condemn him in the same way. There has been a growing tendency among officials, high and low, in the last few years, to ignore the laws which are made for all. It is a very bad tendency and it will have to be curbed with a firm hand. We predict that the people will not stand it, and the officials and aspirants for office should take notice.—Pathfinder.

An Addition to Our Line

WATERLOO BOY The Original Kerosene Tractor

In offering to you the Waterloo Boy, the Original Kerosene Burning Tractor, we believe we have selected the most practical, economical and dependable farm tractor on the market.

Points of Merit on Which Our Judgment Is Based:

PAST PERFORMANCE.. The Waterloo Boy has been a success on farms for five years. In no way is it an experiment.

ECONOMICAL.. It is a three plow tractor—most economical and practical size to use—burns kerosene perfectly without destroying lubricating oil. Its special, patented inbuilt manifold converts every drop of kerosene into pure gas—cylinders are not carbonized—spark plugs are not fouled. The perfect burning of kerosene saves the owner of the Waterloo Boy many dollars every year in cost of fuel and care of motor.

POWERFUL.. The two cylinders, with big bore and long stroke, furnish a guaranteed power of 12 H. P. at the draw bar and 25 H. P. at the belt, with ample reserve for emergencies. The Waterloo Boy pulls three plows under almost any field condition. Hyatt roller bearings at all important bearing points conserve full power. Weight of the tractor is sufficient to insure good traction for drive wheels.

SIMPLE.. Every part is easy to get at and easy to adjust or repair. It doesn't require a tractor expert to keep the Waterloo Boy in good working order. The crank case cover, the inspection plate, the upper half of gear case can all be removed for the purpose of inspection or repair—the operator can work from a standing position.

DURABLE.. Its heat-treated steel cut gears; its force and sight feed oiling system; its 11 sets of Hyatt Roller bearings at all important bearing points and its simple, powerful two-cylinder motor combined with uniformly high grade construction throughout, result in a tractor that has given and will give many years of dependable and economical service.

FOR ALL FARM WORK.. You can depend upon the Waterloo Boy in all farm power work; up to its high rated capacity. It is just as satisfactory in operating belt machines—threshers, shellers, ensilage cutters, hay balers, etc.—as it is in pulling tractor implements of all kinds.

We Want You to See the Waterloo Boy—Come In the Next Time You Are in Town

the indissoluble union of the two great republics which fought and conquered together for the same ideal," as the president of the municipal council put it in a cablegram to the Lafayette committee in Philadelphia.

The people will draw their own conclusions as Governor Cox's talk about campaign funds. Pressed to go before the senatorial investigating committee, Governor Cox said: "I do not see the need of my appearing before the committee. I am entitled to the privilege of giving the facts to the voters at such time and in the manner I SEE FIT."

Chairman Hays said, when informed of the senatorial investigation: "Splendid, that is exactly what we desire. We welcome fullest publicity now and later and as often as possible."

Quite a difference in the Republican and Democratic attitude toward publicity, isn't there?

FRENCH PRESIDENT FORCED TO RESIGN

Health Bad — Resignation Read To Senate And Deputies.

Paris, Sept. 21.—The resignation of Paul Deschanel as president of France, which he handed to Premier Millerand at Rambouillet last week, was read simultaneously in the Senate and Chamber of Deputies when those bodies reconvened today.

"My state of health," wrote M. Deschanel in his letter, "no longer permits me to assume the high functions which your confidence invested in me upon the occasion of the session of the session of the National Assembly on Jan. 17 last.

"The absolute obligation imposed upon me to take a complete rest makes it my duty to no longer delay announcing to you the decision I have been compelled to reach. It is infinitely painful, and it is with profound heart-pangs that I renounce the noble post of which you deemed me worthy."

Revision of the French constitution, which will give greater stability to the government and enlarge the electoral college, which chooses the president of the republic, will be attempted by Premier Millerand when he takes office as president, according to newspapers here. He would have the electoral college include not only the two houses of Parliament, but delegates from locally elected bodies and from great corporations.

M. Millerand also believes that the president should be less of a figure head than has been the rule in the past and that that official should play a role of confident and cordial collaboration with the government in office. In other words, his idea would be that the president should be like the head of a stock company, in which the ministers would take the part of directors and the premier the managing director. He is convinced, it is said, that this plan would assure great continuity and cohesion in the executive branch of the government.

DENTAL NOTICE.

Now is the time to have your Dental work attended to. Winter is coming with rain and snow which makes old teeth ache and abscess. Abscessed Teeth or "Gum Bolls" are dangerous. You are continually swallowing this deadly poisoned pus. Each mouthful of food carries this infection into the stomach. It lowers vitality which invites cancer of the mouth, throat and stomach. Diphtheria, Tuberculosis, Pneumonia, Influenza, Typhoid, Bright's Disease, rheumatism, Anemia and even death frequently results from continually swallowing pus.

A mouth containing decayed teeth is a poisonous laboratory, which seeds a host of bacteria into the elementary tract. They multiply rapidly thus gain access to the lymphatic system and are carried to the distant organs. Soft spongy and bleeding gums give warning of approaching abscesses.

BEADS ODDLY STRUNG

(By I. D. Claire.)

"Editor" Reno—that is my efficient job Foreman—and myself, are forming an organization to be known as The National Grand and Earnest Protesters against the enforcement of the Volstead act. We took Tom Stevens in as a charter member, and have Goodman's application on file. Membership fee one dollar. Send application to Claire and Reno, Central City, Ky.

A lot of folks troubled with rheumatism run off to Martinsville, Ind., and pay a heap of money to take the mud baths, and here I am taking them in Central City for nothing. But Hartfordians enjoy a like luxury.

Absentmindedness is fixing one's attention on one thing so intently that he is oblivious to everything else. I am mortally afflicted with it. I often walk blocks past my home before I discover I have passed it. Rode a dozen blocks by the side of my wife on a street car recently before I noticed who it was, and do many other things as foolish, but I capped the climax the other day. I had occasion to buy two thousand postal cards and when the girl at the window passed them to me I asked in perfect seriousness what they were worth; and I kept a post office for seven years, too.

Everybody should leave his home town and stay a year or two just to realize how much he really loves his neighbors when he meets them again. After an absence of fifteen months I blew into Hartford Friday night and remained over Saturday for the fair. And after the experience, I feel sorry for the fellow who has never stayed away from home long enough to be really glad to get back. But, if events have built a barrier against one's permanent return, a visit will awaken memories of melancholy sadness. Recollections of pleasures that can never be repeated are not pleasant ones.

Have you heard that heart-moving music, Karavan, played on an Edison? If you have not you have missed hearing something akin to the music sung by the fabled invisible choir. I know little of music; so little indeed, that I rarely give it attention, but Karavan is wholly unlike any I ever heard before. It is too strangely wonderful to compare with any other Edison record, and I have wondered if Wiedoeft, the composer, some quiet hour in the night climbed noisily up the golden stairs and leaned over the Jasper wall and, listening, caught the heavenly air while the seraphs sang before the eternal altar of the King of Kings.

I suppose it is characteristic of age to grow reminiscent. I have recently felt a longing to attend an old-fashioned Methodist revival. One at which the old men lead and the young folks assist in singing those old long meter songs, "Amazing Grace," "How Firm a Foundation" and "O Land of Rest for thee I Sigh." I should like to hear the earnest old brothers say "Amen," and hear the good old sisters shout in the old-fashioned way, as they did forty years ago. But the world is sacrificing the riches of feeling to the demands of form, and the joys of the age-old camp meeting exist only in the memory of the passing generation.

I am not disposed to quarrel with the women about the character of their dress, or even the scantiness of it, except the eternal ridiculousness of their style of hats. In most instances the woman's hat is neither comfortable, sensible or artistic. The sailor offers the only model that combines these qualities. The sailor is susceptible of modifications and variations, and the really sensible dresser conforms to that model.
